VASCULAR UPDATE FOR THE PRIMARY CARE PRACTITIONER

March 3, 2012 – 8:00 AM to 2:10 PM
Monterey Plaza Hotel, Monterey, California

STATEMENT OF NEED

This conference will highlight the treatment of vascular diseases, with a primary care focus. This course will provide primary care practitioners and cardiologists with comprehensive, up-to-date and evidence-based information on the diagnosis and management of at risk patients with vascular conditions. A framework will be provided for the initial management of these diseases and an algorithm for referral to more specialized care.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This course is intended to meet the specialty and subspecialty needs of internal medicine, family practice, general practitioners, cardiologists, and interested allied health professionals.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Formulate a strategy to implement evidence-based guidelines for the diagnosis and management of patients with abdominal aortic aneurysm (AAA).
- Develop a strategy to evaluate athletes for uncommon vascular disorders when clinically indicated.
- Accurately diagnose and manage patients with DVT according to current guidelines.

ACCREDITATION

The Stanford University School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CREDIT DESIGNATION

Stanford University School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 5.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The California Board of Registered Nursing recognizes that Continuing Medical Education (CME) is acceptable for meeting RN continuing education requirements, as long as the course is certified for AMA PRA Category 1 credit(s)[™] (m.ca.gov). Nurses will receive a Certificate of Attendance following this activity that may be used for license renewal.

CANCELLATION POLICY

A written notice of cancellation must be received 30 days prior to the start of this activity. A $75 cancellation fee will be assessed at that time; after that date, cancellation requests cannot be honored. Program materials cannot be guaranteed unless enrollment is received by February 3, 2012. Stanford University School of Medicine reserves the right to cancel this program; in the event of cancellation, course fees will be fully refunded.

ACCOMMODATIONS

A block of rooms is being held for conference participants. Rooms at these special rates have been reserved for attendees on a first-come, first-served basis and may sell out before the cut-off date. By staying at the host hotel, you assist Stanford University School of Medicine in meeting its contractual obligation with the hotel and in keeping future registration rates reasonable.
