An Inside Look at Stanford Hospital & Clinics

JANUARY 2011

"I never thought I would actually get to the point where I feel the way I do."

—Michael Moore

TRANSPLANTS ARE NEVER SIMPLE

Collaboration Key to Beating Odds

After years of health eroded by liver disease, Michael Moore has a life he enjoys to the fullest. The journey was not easy, but the comprehensive and collaborative care he found at Stanford Hospital & Clinics made all the difference. READ FULL ARTICLE >

Doctor, Doctor: Bad Case of Lovin' Tunes

Respite Program Turns Around a Man's Life

With no job, home, or medical insurance, Willie J. Mackey's health was quickly deteriorating. A diabetic foot ulcer, left untreated, turned into a health crisis. Thanks to the services of the Medical Respite Program, Mackey's foot healed properly, he found permanent housing, and is back on track to finding a full time job.
