

Discover

An Inside Look at Stanford Hospital & Clinics

OCTOBER 2011

"The nurse coordinator said, 'We have a plan,' and she was so positive I thought, 'Okay, I'll go along with that.'"

—Marjorie Paulsen

AN INTERSECTION FOR CONCERTED CARE

Stanford Brain Tumor Center Debuts

Marjorie Paulsen came to Stanford to treat a brain tumor. There she found top-notch specialists providing expert care that helped her beat it. READ FULL ARTICLE AND WATCH VIDEO>

Stanford Opens New Brain Tumor Center

Stanford Hospital & Clinics inaugurates its new Brain Tumor Center recently, framing its considerable corps of top-notch specialists into a treatment team driven by expertise, experience and compassion. The goal, said Center Director Griff Harsh, MD, "is to give patients the highest quality of care, delivered with a matching level of efficiency."

READ FULL ARTICLE >

Embryonic Stem Cell Therapy for Paralysis Given to First Patient in Western U.S.

Stanford and Santa Clara Valley Medical Center have enrolled the fourth participant in the nation's first trial of cells derived from human embryonic stem cells.

READ FULL ARTICLE >

For Stanford Study of Concussions, Athletes Use High-Tech Mouthpiece to Record Head Impact

Stanford University football players this season are wearing mouthpieces equipped with tiny sensors to measure the force of head impacts during games and practices. The goal is to help medical scientists better understand what sorts of football collisions cause concussions.

READ FULL ARTICLE >

discover

Your Health

After aggressive treatment for ovarian cancer, Lane Baker is now cancer-free.

discover

Health Education

Rachel Manber, MD, discusses sleeping well as we age.

discover

SHC in the News

For the latest media coverage click here.

discover

SHC Events

Click here for a listing of upcoming lectures

Physician Brings Modern Medicine to Late Stone Age

Grant Lipman, MD, an emergency medicine physician at SHC, provided medical care to cavemen. OK, they weren't really cavemen--they were participants in a filmed social experiment to determine how modern-day people would fare if they had to live like their ancestors did 20,000 years ago. READ FULL ARTICLE > and events.

We welcome your feedback at: communications@stanfordmed.org

This email was sent by communications@stanfordmed.org | Privacy Policy.
Stanford Hospital & Clinics | 300 Pasteur Drive | Stanford | CA | 94305